1	Doing a great job! Just keep bringing in great speakers on a variety of health and wellness topics. Break out workshops would be helpful to share ideas with other companies and/or brainstorm solutions to challenges.	12/1/2016 11:15 AM
2	Could some of your conferences qualify for continuing education credits for CPAs? That would allow me to direct some of my required CPE to the DFWBGH.	12/1/2016 10:12 AM
3	I was not aware of some of the things in the priority list above. Maybe highlight one of the available resources in the monthly email announcing the next session	12/1/2016 10:02 AM
4	Already doing an excellent job!	11/3/2016 10:08 AM
5	continue to provide excellent programs	10/28/2016 4:00 PM
6	Tool kits	10/28/2016 3:29 PM
7	Add in retirement plan issues/topics	10/28/2016 11:10 AM
8	provide more resources (i.e., education, statistics, etc.)	10/28/2016 10:55 AM
9	Can't think of anything. Programs are good. I just need to make a stronger effort to participate.	10/28/2016 9:01 AM

1	Thank you for hosting the annual benefits seminar at the Irving Convention Center. The venue and set up was excellent.	12/2/2016 8:22 AM
2	I'd like to see a roundtable/networking session where members are assigned to certain table based upon the number on their badge. We would separate co-workers to provide for better diversity and networking. Then each table would have two-three topics like - does your Company have a CDHP and has it been effective? Or what has been your most effective wellness strategy? I have done this at a 401(k) administrator conference and it was hands down the best session. Most employers are wanting to know what other entities are doing and did they work.	12/1/2016 9:42 AM
3	Having meetings in the mid-cities is helpful for those companies in Tarrant County.	10/28/2016 10:56 AM
4	Continue to market in the DFW area to gain memberships and awareness	10/28/2016 10:55 AM
